

Sharing the Gospel of Salvation

Following a General Synod debate in February 2009, the House of Bishops was asked to produce a report on their understanding of the uniqueness of Christ in Britain's multi-faith society.

Sharing the Gospel of Salvation is that report.
(which is now freely available on the Church of England website)

On Thursday 2nd September, Dr John Azumah, Director of the Centre for Islamic Studies, London School of Theology will give a keynote address responding to the report. A guest panel; The Revd Jan Ainsworth, The Revd Canon Dr Jane Freeman and The Revd Mark Poulson will share their reactions and all will respond to questions from the floor.

This event, hosted by The Greater London Presence and Engagement Network, (PEN) will be held in the Gary Weston Library, Southwark Cathedral, at 6.30pm. There will be a nominal charge of £5. To reserve a place or for more information please contact the PEN Coordinator via pen@theology-centre.org or 020 7780 1600
see also www.londonpen.org